It is proposed round 1 for F-Grade will be 7th April 2018.

- F-Grade players still need to be 28+ to play.
- F-Grade would still remain a 16-a-side competition.
- The 'even up rule' would still remain.
- No boundary umpires required, last possession rule still applies.

PROPOSED CHANGES TO CURRENT BY-LAWS TO PLAY F-GRADE:

Affiliation Fee Concession

A $500 Affiliation Fee concession to play F-Grade is offered. F-Grade Affiliation Fees will be $1994 (plus GST) per team.

Team composition

Currently, By-law B2.3.1(e) states that a F-Grade player playing more than 3 matches in a higher grade cannot return to F-Grade for the remainder of the season.

It is proposed this by-law be deleted to allow clubs more flexibility with team selections in higher grades. However, to avoid 'team stacking' into F-Grade finals, the finals eligibility for F-Grade would be amended to encourage predominantly F-Grade players in finals as detailed below.

Finals

Only a Grand Final will be played which will be determined by the two highest ranked teams after the qualifying rounds.

To play F-Grade finals, a player shall;

1. Have played at least one F-Grade qualifying match in the season for the club.
2. Have played more F-Grade qualifying matches than the combined total matches in higher grades in the season for the club.

F-Grade qualifying matches may be counted towards a player's finals eligibility in accordance with By-law B2.6 – Finals Eligibility.

A player who has played less than five qualifying matches in a grade will be permitted to play finals in the highest grade in which he has played and F-Grade finals.

Forfeit

The $300 fine applicable for forfeiting a match would not be applied in F-Grade.
