The Perth Football League is conducting a workshop for clubs on how to effectively manage their Club's liquor license.

As club bars are a social hub at matches and can generate significant funds for the club, the purpose of the workshop is to outline and discuss ways clubs can effectively their licensed areas to be an enjoyable place that meets licensing obligations.

The workshop is aimed at Club Bar Managers.

Due to the size of the room clubs are requested to RSVP to attend. Clubs may have more than one representative attend.
