In 2019, the West Australian Football Commission will introduce a new competition format, combining the Year 11 and Year 12 age groups. With a number of changes being implemented in this competition, the WAFC would like to invite club officials and Year 11/12 coaches and team managers to a free education and information session on Monday 18th March at the East Perth Football Club.

Some of the topics covered will include:

- How to manage players and parents in relation to moving players between teams.
- How to grow your player list.
- Preparing players to transition into Senior Football.
- Case Study: Connecting with Schools at a Year 11/12 Level.
- Outline of the cross-conference finals structure.

Details for the evening are as follows:

Date: Monday, 18th March

Time: 6:30pm

Venue: East Perth Football Club, Leederville Oval
