Session Descriptions

Club and Volunteer Development - Warren Nel the General Manager of Game Development will be joined by Joe Georgiades the WACFL General Manager as they discuss the role of leadership in sport, and how strong leadership can come from everyone within the club. Leadership will also be the focus on how clubs can engage and grow in synch with their every changing community.

Coach - Glenn Morley the WAFC Coaching Manager will deliver a session on Personal Development as a coach, and touch on the coaches ability build culture within their team through developing their relationships with players. This session will also look at ways to measure success and development, and all attendees will have the opportunity to complete their own coaching development plan.

To support the theory side of coaching Craig Walker the WA Country Football League State Coach will also be in Kalgoorlie to deliver a practical session on how to train more effectively, and develop skill in your squad. This practical session will provide coaches with a range of drills and practical advice that they can transfer to their teams training sessions straight away.

Club and Volunteer Development - Warren Nel the General Manager of Game Development will be joined by Joe Georgiades the WACFL General Manager as they discuss the role of leadership in sport, and how strong leadership can come from everyone within the club. Leadership will also be the focus on how clubs can engage and grow in synch with their every changing community.

Engaging with Schools - The WAFC Education Manager Sharon Wilson will also be in town to Discuss the hugely successful AFL School Ambassador Program - for any clubs looking to engage better with their local schools this session will provide with the tools needed to utilise the positive opportunities that a close and strong working relationship with locals can have on a community club.

Football Forum - Do you have a great idea you want heard - or have a burning question you want answered then the Footy Forum is your opportunity. The forum will be a facilitated discussion with local football leaders and the guests from the WA Football Commission. The intent is to discuss the hot topics of the days and share information on the current health of the game and where it is heading over the next 5 years.
