

2022 BELT UP NAIDOC

DESIGN A BALL COMPETITION

Together, we invite the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community to enter this competition which involves designing ONE panel of a Burley football. These footballs will be distributed to clubs across regional WA to celebrate NAIDOC Round in 2022.

COMPETITION REQUIREMENTS:

- Entries must be completed on the template provided (limited to 6 colours per design).
- Entries must be accompanied by a reflection on the reasons for the design.
- The competition is open exclusively to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community.
- Maximum of one entry per person.

Please submit this entry form and design template to the WACFL via wacountry@wafc.com.au by COB FRIDAY AUGUST 27.

This competition has been made possible through the West Australian Country Football League's partnership with the Insurance Commission of Western Australia, with the aim to promote the Belt Up road safety campaign.

The Insurance Commission aims to raise awareness about the importance of wearing a seatbelt. Last year, 98 people were killed or seriously injured in crashes while not wearing a seatbelt, many of these in regional areas.

The winning design will be announced in September 2021 and will be used on the Belt Up NAIDOC footballs for season 2022.
